

Collective Scientific Volume on Socio-cultural Animation ...

Dear Authors,

As part of the preparation of this collective volume on socio-cultural animation, we kindly ask you to follow the editorial guidelines outlined below. Strict adherence to these standards will facilitate the scientific review process, ensure consistency among contributions, and support the editorial work.

1. Nature of Contributions

Submitted manuscripts must be original, unpublished scholarly works that are not under consideration for publication elsewhere.

Contributions may take the form of :

- Empirical research papers
- Theoretical or conceptual analyses
- Case studies
- Practice-based reflections grounded in a scientific framework
- Critical literature reviews.

All submissions should fit within the thematic scope of the volume and provide a significant contribution to the field of cultural animation.

2. Language of Submission

Authors are expected to ensure :

- High linguistic quality
- Terminological consistency
- Scientific precision
- Correct grammar and spelling.

3. Length of Manuscripts

Main Text

- Between 30,000 and 50,000 characters (including spaces).
- Approximately 15 to 25 pages.

Elements Included in the Character Count

The following are included in the total length :

- Title
- Abstracts
- Keywords

- Main text
- Footnotes
- References.

4. General Formatting Requirements

Document Format

- Microsoft Word (.doc or .docx)
- A4 page size
- Margins : 2.5 cm (1 inch) on all sides

Font

- Times New Roman
- 12-point font size

Line Spacing

- 1. spacing throughout

Alignment

- Justified text

Paragraph Indentation

- First-line indent : 0.5 cm

Paragraph Spacing

- No additional spacing before or after paragraphs

Page Numbering

- All pages must be numbered.

5. Structure of the Article

Articles should follow the structure below.

First Page

Title

- Centered
- Bold
- 14-point font

Author Information

Placed below the title :

- Full name
- Institutional affiliation
- Academic position or professional title
- E-mail address

Abstract

- Between 150 and 250 words

Keywords

- 5 to 7 keywords

Second Abstract (if applicable)

For articles submitted in English, authors should also provide a French abstract and keywords whenever possible.

6. Organization of the Text

Use a clear hierarchical structure for headings.

Level 1

1. Section Title

- Bold
- 12-point font

Level 2

1.1. Subsection Title

- Bold italic

Level 3

1.1.1. Sub-subsection Title

- Italic

Authors are advised not to exceed three heading levels.

7. Quotations

Short Quotations

Quotations of fewer than three lines should be incorporated into the text using quotation marks.

Example :

According to Dubois, “cultural animation constitutes a privileged space for social mediation” (Dubois, 2020, p. 45).

Long Quotations

Quotations exceeding three lines should be :

- Indented 1 cm from the left margin
- Written in 11-point font
- Single-spaced
- Presented without quotation marks.

Example :

Cultural animation contributes to the construction of social bonds while promoting access to cultural practices. It therefore constitutes an essential vehicle for civic participation. (Dubois, 2020, p. 45)

8. Footnotes

Footnotes should be used sparingly.

Format

- Inserted using Word's automatic footnote function
- Continuous numbering throughout the article
- 10-point font
- Single spacing.

Purpose

Footnotes should be reserved for :

- Additional explanations
- Secondary discussions
- Contextual information.

9. In-Text Citations

The author-date system should be used.

One Author

(Martin, 2021)

Two Authors

(Martin & Dupont, 2021)

Three or More Authors

(Martin et al., 2021)

Citation with Page Number

(Martin, 2021, p. 35)

10. Reference List

The reference list should appear at the end of the article.

References must be arranged :

- Alphabetically by author
- Chronologically for multiple works by the same author.

Book

Surname, Initial(s). (Year). Title of the Book. Place of Publication : Publisher.

Example :

Bordeaux, M. (2018). Cultural Policies and Territories. Paris : La Documentation française.

Journal Article

Surname, Initial(s). (Year). "Title of the Article." Journal Title, Volume(Issue), Pages.

Example :

Saez, G. (2021). "Cultural Animation and Civic Participation." Journal of Cultural Affairs, 15(2), 45–61.

Book Chapter

Surname, Initial(s). (Year). "Title of Chapter." In Initial(s). Surname (Ed.), Book Title (pp. xx–xx). Place of Publication : Publisher.

Online Resource

Surname, Initial(s). (Year). Title. Accessed on Day Month Year at : URL.

11. Tables, Figures, and Illustrations

Each figure or table must :

- Be numbered consecutively
- Include a title
- Indicate the source.

Example :

Figure 1. Evolution of Cultural Participation (2010–2024)

Source : National Survey on Cultural Practices, 2024.

Technical Specifications

Images must be submitted separately in :

- JPEG, PNG, or TIFF format
- Minimum resolution : 300 dpi.

The intended placement should be clearly indicated in the manuscript :

[Insert Figure 1 here]

12. Abbreviations and Acronyms

At first mention, provide the full name followed by the abbreviation in parentheses.

Example :

United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO)

Subsequent references :

UNESCO

13. Author Biographical Note

Please provide, in a separate document :

- Full name
- Institutional affiliation
- Academic position or professional title

- Main research interests
- Biographical note (80–120 words)
- ORCID identifier (if available).

14. Originality Statement

Authors certify that :

- The manuscript is original
- It does not infringe any copyright or intellectual property rights
- All sources are appropriately acknowledged
- The manuscript is not under consideration elsewhere.

15. Submission Requirements

The submission package should include :

File 1 : Manuscript

File name :

AUTHOR_SURNAME_Article.docx

File 2 : Biographical Note

File name :

AUTHOR_SURNAME_Bio.docx

File 3 : Illustrations

A separate folder containing all figures and images.

16. Editorial Process

All submissions will undergo :

1. An initial compliance check with these guidelines
2. Scientific peer review by the editorial committee
3. Possible requests for revision
4. Final approval by the volume editors.

17. Final Checklist

Before submission, please verify that :

- ☐ The manuscript complies with the required length
- ☐ Abstract(s) and keywords are included
- ☐ References are complete and consistently formatted
- ☐ Citations comply with academic standards
- ☐ Figures and tables are numbered and sourced
- ☐ The manuscript has been carefully proofread
- ☐ Author information is complete